

Position: Quality Manager

Description: Manages Quality for the entire Corporation. Ensures the vision of Quality for the company is consistent with the company vision. Leads and directs all Quality activities related to processes, procedures and policies; responsible for compliance with all applicable regulatory agencies. Manages total quality programs, policies, and initiatives; responsible for identifying, analyzing and developing improvements in throughput, productivity, quality, client relationships, and customer service.

Responsibilities:

- Plans, coordinates, and directs a department responsible for quality control programs designed to ensure continuous production of products consistent with established standards.
- Works with cross functional groups such as Engineering, Materials, and Operations to establish and to achieve business objectives.
- Directly supervises quality associates. Responsible for the overall direction, coordination, and evaluation of the department.
- Maintenance and upgrade of the Quality Management System as embodied in the Quality Manual.
- Responsible for evaluation and resolution of customer/vendor quality issues.
- Develop and implement the Quality systems necessary to support the growth of the Company.
- Continuous reporting of the status of the Quality System to proactively address the organizations Quality needs.
- ISO/AS reviews and re-certifications.
- Perform other related duties as required.

Performance Expectations and Goals:

The Quality Manager is expected to maintain or raise the PLI quality management system to a level above the customer's expectation. The QM is expected to implement continuous monitoring of processes and bring forth clear and concise reports that provide a path for continuous improvement.

Position Requirements:

- Bachelor of Science in a business-related field.
- 7-10 years experience in quality assurance and 1-2 years management experience.
- Extensive knowledge and training in ISO/AS.